

Choreographer Application for Full Tilt 2023

Evoke Productions produces an annual dance festival, Full Tilt, a weekend of performances of quality contemporary dance that provides collaborative relationships with local choreographers and performance opportunities for many local dancers. Five choreographers of any genre/experience level are selected through an open application process and an open audition is held for dancers.

Deadline for submission: October 30, 2022, at midnight

Show Dates: May 5 & 6, 2023 7pm and 9pm

Dancer Audition Date: Saturday, January 14, 2023, 12:45-4:45pm – NOD Theater

We are looking for proposals for the creation of a new work (10-12 minutes in length).

- 1) Describe your choreographic experience:

- 2) How would you describe your work and your rehearsal process?

- 3) Give us a brief concept of the work you would like to do for Full Tilt 2023 (please include number of dancers, any special technical requests)

- 4) This year, we would like one of our choreographers to create a piece that includes mature dancers (at least half of dancers are age 40+). Would you be interested in creating a work of this nature and how would you create a project to incorporate all age groups?

- 5) Why are you interested in Full Tilt 2023? What do you hope to gain from this experience?

- 6) Name some choreographers who inspire you and why:

- 7) Have you participated in a past Full Tilt (audition, choreographer, performer, audience member, volunteer)?

Please include a work sample (suggested 3 minutes) and a resume. The work sample should be of a similar style as the proposed work. Please include a link to your work sample (YouTube, Vimeo, e.g. – but please ensure that permissions allow us to view the video).
